Foreword

With the aid of administrative guides and underclassmen bearers, we, the graduating class of 1963, have completed our safari. To make our expedition worthwhile, we have carefully observed the scenery and have taken an active role in the search for knowledge. Most of us have succeeded in reaching this goal, but others have concentrated in tribal rituals and councils or have become lost in the dense jungle. As we move on expectantly to future responsibilities, we leave to you who have been faithful bearers during our trip the opportunities and the subsequent discoveries gained by planning and participating in such a journey. Let us now review the many wonderful experiences we have had during our safari.

SOPHOMORES

The record class of about 700 sophomores began the year by electing Steve Kolodzik, president; Herb Kinney, vice-president; Sue Furste, secretary; and Karen Davis, treasurer to lead it through the first important year of its safari. The sophomores soon became accustomed to a new daily schedule in a new building, the many extracurricular activities, and the leadership of the powerful senior class. In order to increase their treasury for the Junior-Senior Prom and the Norwester, the ambitious sophomores captured the first prize in the Parent-Teacher Association membership drive. The sophomores proudly ended the year by decorating Senior Hall and becoming upperclassmen.

The class of 1963 wishes the best of luck for the class of 1965 during the final, fun-and-work-filled years of its safari for knowledge.

On Wednesday morning, September 5, 1962, while the teachers attended a Workshop and the upper-classmen enjoyed their last day of freedom, the sophomores of 1963 labored to prove their maturity as they took the California Maturity Test in U.A.H.S.'s gymnasium.

JUNIORS

President Jim Hutchins led the juniors through the next-to-last year of their safari with the assistance of Vice President Al Drewsen, Secretary Linda Dickens and Treasurer Derry Munger. Officers during their sophomore year were Derry Munger, president; John Parsons, vice-president; Linda Dickens, secretary; and Mark Buchsieb, treasurer. Linda Dickens and Ted Howell were elected co-chairmen of the Junior-Senior Prom, while Susie Bazler, Nanci Missildine, and Susie Stecker were chosen cheerleaders. Dances after basketball games and a winning Homecoming float helped make the year an exciting and beneficial one for the enthusiastic, hard-working juniors.

The close of the school year found the class of 1964 eagerly awaiting their senior year when they would finally complete their long and difficult safari and move on to even more challenging horizons.

Senior Officers

President Jeff Schofield, with Vice-President Tyler Baldock and Secretary-Treasurer Carolyn Fahrbach, led the class of 1963 through the final successful year of the safari for knowledge. Everyone will certainly remember the many exciting events during the year. At Homecoming, Queen Teri Adams and Princesses Sara Lowther, Jean Burr, Betty Jencks, and Barb Berend reigned over the victory dance. Chreerleaders Judy Agee, Susi Guthrie, and Barb Patten led the crowds in cheering the football team on to the C.B.L. crown. Seniors celebrated Christmas at the AIM-SOC formal and then began studying for semester exams. The Junior-Senior Prom and the many senior parties occupied the seniors during the last weeks of the school year. The senior assembly, Baccalaureate, and Commencement climaxed the year and ended the safari for the class of 1963.

Vampire Club: Carol Kime, Linda Grafmiller, Sally Lemly, Jenni Hildreth, Betsy Talbot.

The second half of elementary school was filled with birthday parties, Girl Scout and Boy Scout activities, and, of course, social studies and arithmetic. Many secret clubs, including the now famous Vampire Club, were organized by the ambitious class to help fill up the after-schools hours.

Jr. High Cheerleaders: Sara Lowther, Linda McClanahan, Teri Adams.

Seventh grade passed rather uneventfully, but in the eighth grade, Student Council elections and cheerleading tryouts occupied the busy class of '63. "Big" Steve Walker was elected Student Council president, while Teri Adams, Sara Lowther, and Linda McClannan were chosen Cheerleaders. Ten members of the class were awarded American Legion Citizenship Awards. Ninth grade was climaxed by an impressive outdoor graduation ceremony.

The Golden Gate Bridge

The class of '63, under the leadership of co-chairmen Sara Lowther and Dick Main, spent many long months preparing for the 1962 Junior-Senior Prom, which was presented on May 5. "San Francisco-City at the Golden Gate" featured elaborate decorations which included an enormous bridge spanning a blue plastic lake.

Two restaurants, a beatnik coffeehouse and a Chinese tearoom, were also set up in the gym. The entire hall outside the gym was decorated to resemble a San Francisco street. Each of the people attending received a "China man" as a permanent souvenir.

Senior high offered something for each member of the class, no matter how varied his talents. For those interested in local government, there was the annual Youth-in-Government day, G.A.A. occupied the time of sports-minded girls, while those with a theatrical bent participated in "The King and I" or the talent shows.

Leaders Club

Leader's Club is a service club comprised of junior and senior representatives from other school clubs. With the emphasis on a sincere interest in serving the school and the community, Leaders' Club projects this year included the annual canned food drive in November, the International Dinner, the college panel assembly and the leadership-training conference. Two additional Leaders' Club activities were the Christmas and Easter parties held at Godman Guild and the raising of money for club projects through the sale of wrapping paper and Golden Bear pins.

Aim

AIM, which is open to all senior girls, is primarily a social club; but AIM members perform at least one service project each year. A progressive dinner--with no cars allowed--was the first activity of the year. AIM co-sponsored the annual Christmas formal, "An Old-Fashioned Christmas." Barb Brown reigned over the dance as the AIM queen. A surprise come-as-you-are breakfast and a spring swimming party were other social activities enjoyed by AIM members. The service project this year was a drive to collect books for the Columbus Children's Psychiatric Hospital.

Top to Bottom: Mrs. Ella Mae Miller (Adviser), Barb Brown (Secretary), Susie Boehm (Treasurer), Marilyn White (President). and Nancy Kackley (Vice President).

SOC

SOC is a combination social and service club comprised of junior girls. In August the 1962-63 season started with a tea to welcome sophomore girls to the high school. In November the cry was "support the School for the Retarded Children Levy," as SOC members canvassed Arlington for voter support. In December, SOC joined with AIM, the senior girls' club, to present the Annual Christmas formal. In addition to ratifying a constitution this year, SOC members saved time to take advantage of knitting and bridge lessons.

Ski

What's new---SKI, which was formed this year to better the relationship among sophomore girls and to serve the school and the community. While much of the year was spent in getting organized, completed SKI projects included a children's party and a clothing drive in the spring as well as plans to adopt a foreign child. Additional SKI activities included an ice cream social and a carwash.

Future Teachers of America

Future Teachers of America aids interested students in learning about teaching and in cultivating the qualities essential to a good teacher. Approximately 105 juniors and seniors participated in the cadet teaching program in the elementary and junior high schools. Guest speakers on various phases of education were featured at meetings, and in the spring members visited the Ohio School for the Blind. Among club projects were tray favors for Children's Hospital at Christmas and Easter. F.T.A. members also served as guides for the annual P. T. A. open house. A busy year was climaxed by the annual Rose Breakfast.

Future Nurses' Club

Future Nurses' Club is open to all girls who are interested in nursing. On the third Wednesday of every month, FNC holds its business meetings. Guest speakers, members of a medical profession, and refreshments were featured at the home meetings on the first Tuesday of each month. Field trips were taken to the Cerebral Palsy Center and to Battelle Memorial Institute. To raise money, FNC gave a dance after a football game and after a basketball game. Several bake sales were also held. Twenty-five dollars of this money was sent to an orphanage in Korea. Members gave a Christmas party for about thirty children at the Ohio State School.

Y-Teens

To grow as a person and to grow in friendship with persons of all nationalities, races, and religions is the purpose of Y-Teens, which is affiliated with the Young Women's Christian Organization. The Y-Teens started the year with their annual sophomore welcoming party at Holiday Hill in Delaware, Ohio. Later, at the formal inauguration in November, Becky Ylaya was made an honorary member of Y-Teens. An Arlington Y-Teen, Dana Webster, was co-chairman of the city-wide Fall Fantasy Dance at Walnut Ridge Junior High. Links, the Easter and Thanksgiving assemblies, the April dance, and the dating panel with Hi-Y comprised the other major activities of the year.

Hi-Y

Primarily a school and community service organization, Hi-Y is closely affiliated with the Y.M.C.A. Throughout the year members seek to promote genuine school spirit and interest in intramural athletics through such activities as selling football programs and participating in state and local Hi-Y events. The Arlington Hi-Y sponsors a representative team in the competitive Columbus area Hi-Y basketball league. Such activities invoke greater friendship and cooperation among the member schools.

The climax of the year's H-Y activities occurred in the Columbus area Hi-Y Youth-in-Government Day, and the sale of mints to support World Neighbors, an international Y.M.C.A. service movement.

Top to Bottom: Steve Hardymon (President), Ron Boley (Vice President), Mr. Robert Tangeman (Adviser), Dick Main (Treasurer), Mr. Gerald Ashton (Adviser), and Fred Gatske (Sergeant-at-Arms).

Inter Nos

Inter Nos, meaining "among ourselves," is a club which offers Latin students an opportunity to enrich their background in classical culture. A Roman banquet was held at Jones Junior High in February. Members dressed in Roman costume and Sophomore "slaves" served. At an earlier meeting, a teacher who had visited Rome on a scholarship spoke to members and their parents. The climax of the year's activities was the state convention for Latin clubs held in March at Mershon auditorium on the Ohio State campus.

Russian Club

Russion Club is open to all students who are interested in learning more about Russian culture. Two documentary films and two cartoons were shown at meetings. Members also heard a speaker who had visited Russia. A very successful Russian smorgasbord was held on Valentine's Day. Russian students enjoyed borsch, beef stroganoff, and other less well-known Russian foods such as mushrooms in sour cream, apple fool, and kulich. In the spring, a girl from North High School who speaks only Russian at home with her Russian-born parents visited Arlington for a day under the sponsorship of Russian Club.

El Dorado Club

This year more than 300 Spanish students have had many opportunities to share their interests "al modo espanol" through the many activities planned by the El Dorado Club advisers, Mrs. Ann Dickerson, Mrs. Gloria Ecker, Mrs. Katherine Fulton, and Mr. Richard Beery, and the club officers.

These activities ranged from learning the Bossa Nova and singing Spanish songs at the meetings, as well as Spanish Christmas caroling for Kinder Key, to eating Spanish food at the Casa Jose. Further activities included Spanish conversation groups and meeting with Cuban teenagers who are now residing in Columbus. Between regular club activities and such additions as the city-wide Spanish Fiesta and the Spanish paper Siesta, El Dorado Club fulfilled its purpose of providing students with an opportunity to understand better the life and customs of Spain and Latin America.

Le Cercle Francais

The dual purpose of Le Cercle Francais is to promote an interest in French culture and to give club members an opportunity to converse in French.

The members of Le Cercle Francais strive to increase their knowledge of the French culture and to increase their familiarity with French conversation. The members of Le Cercle have enjoyed varied programs at their monthly evening meetings. During the Christmas season the French students climaxed their caroling for Kinder Key by a party at the Cellios'. All meetings are conducted entirely in French; the members are forced to practice the skill they learn in the classroom. The annual City Banquet at the Ohio Union put the final touches on a successful year.

Pub Club

To create badges and posters for the various athletic events in the school in order to promote school spirit is the purpose of Pub Club. Badges for the football games were made on Wednesday nights in the homes of club members, and posters for the basketball games and other athletic events were made on Tuesdays in the art room.

Besides painting, cutting, and pasting, Pub Club sponsored a bake sale, purchased club chains, devised a new constitution, and replenished the depleted treasury. The annual Pub Club picinc brought the year to a close.

Dramatics Club

Dramatics Club offers an opportunity for interested students to participate in a dramatic presentation. At their Tuesday meetings the Drama Club members discuss, plan, and rehearse programs for the entertainment of the student body. Last fall they gave an excellent presentation of "The Angry Twelve," an adaptation of "Twelve Angry Men." In December, the Dramatists presented oral readings every period during one school day for the benefit of English classes. This interesting program was well received by the audience.

Charm Club

Charm Club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Betty Woolpert and Mrs. Ann Ream, enjoyed a year of service projects, money-making endeavors, and fun. The Club's first project was the annual field trip to the Columbus State School. The members held a clothing drive and an Easter party for the residents of a cottage at the school.

Members and their parents were invited to a Christmas party and program. Informality reigned at this year's Golddiggers Dance when the members converted the gym into Dogpatch, U. S. A. Charm Club concluded the year with a style show of clothes made in home economics classes.

Newcomers' Club

Newcomers' Club is primarily a social club, which is organized to aid new students in the school. The annual Luau, held before school opens each year, is the major project of Newcomers' Club. New students have the opportunity to get acquainted with many of the student leaders who give resumés of the activities of the various school organizations. By talking with "old" students, the newcomers can learn about school traditions and get a good idea of the type of school they are entering.

Young Democrats' Club

To further the political education of Arlington students is the purpose of Young Democrats' Club. Members seek to express their own political feelings rather than parrot the views of parents and friends. By attendance at political rallies and distribution of campaign literature, the Young Democrats learn about local politics. Speakers such as Paul Cassidy, candidate for representative from the 12th congressional district, are invited to the monthly meeting to elaborate on the tenets of the Democratic Party.

Club adviser, Mr. Fred Bunte, aims to provide the club members with the facts of political theory, so that they can decide with which philosophy they agree.

Young Republicans Club

To promote intelligent student interest in politics, the Young Republican Club members presented a wide range of speakers (including the presidents of the Ohio League of High School and College Young Republicans and a former Ohio governor), films, and literature throughout the year. Active member participation included debating political issues, attending the Ohio State University Mock Senate, the state Young Republican convention, and touring the state capital.

To inform members and other students of timely political activities, the club published its own newspaper.

Festo

To promote an interest in the fine arts among all students and to offer opportunities for Arlington's amateur artists are the purpose of Festo, which was reorganized this year.

The club's largest annual project is decorating the school at Christmas time. A modern nativity scene was erected in the central stairwell and abstract mobiles were hung in the stairway in the north wing. Stained glass windows completed the decorations.

Festo also furnished the art work periodically displayed in the library. An art exhibit composed of works of teachers and students climaxed the year.

Debate Club

Debate Club provides an opportunity for interested students to learn the fundamentals of argumentation. With each debate, members became more adept at organization of thought, and clear, persuasive expression.

The club adviser, Mr. Forest Sammons, divided the members into competitive teams on the basis of their performance in a series of intra-squad contests. These teams consisted of two affirmative and two negative speakers. Three of these teams participated in interscholastic contests with teams from Marietta, North, Bexley, Worthington, and Grandview. These debates prepared the club members for the state qualifying tournaments at the Ohio State University.

Business Education Club

Membership in the Business Education Club provides pupils with an opportunity to broaden their knowledge of the secretarial field. During their regular business meetings, guest speakers tell of their experiences in today's office and pupils discuss problems that they will meet later on the job. As service work, the members prepare secretarial materials for the faculty and school organizations. Although business and service meetings keep them busy, the members of the Business Education Club take time to socialize at their annual Christmas party and again at the close of the school year.

Library Club

Ever wonder how books get back on shelves? Who writes those dreaded over-due slips: Library Club pleads guilty! Each period will find members of the Library Club working at the desk, checking out books or collecting fines. Many times meetings provide learning experiences. For example, there are questions and answer sessions supplemented by food and chatter. From what members learn about the library at those meetings, it becomes possible for them to help their fellow students.

Varsity A

Varsity A is a brotherhood open to all of Upper Arlington's lettermen. A basic purpose of the club is to assist other school clubs with their projects.

Transportation for the annual Leaders' Club canned foods drive in November was furnished by members of Varsity A. The club also sponsored the open house after the Whitehall basketball game.

Varsity A was organized many years ago but was discontinued during the early 1950's. The club was reorganized four years ago, and this year a new constitution was written.

Radio Club

Radio Club is designed for students interested in amateur radio. The members maintain a complete radio station and learn through practical experience. They discover that amateur radio involves a knowledge of electrical theory, the Morse code, government regulations, as well as operating procedure. This past year many members were able to secure their novice and general licenses.

In June the members participated in a twenty-four hour field day contest using temporary antennas and portable generators. Radio Club joins with thousands of other amateurs throughout the United States to test their ability to communicate under emergency conditions.

Seated: Quick Coddington (President), Dave Evans (QLS Committee Chairman), and Leon Bowman (Adviser). Row Two: John Shea (Secretary-Treasurer), Steve Hale (Six-Meter Committee Chairman), and Bob Vance (Vice President).

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council, a representative, parliamentary organization, functions to promote the interests of Upper Arlington students.

Major Council projects included operating the student store, which sold school supplies and refreshments after school, sponsoring the annual Americanism Assembly in the fall, supervising the Homecoming Parade, and issuing attractive Student Directories. Student Council also sponsored reciprocal field trips between neighboring high school student councils and officially represented the student body at various Central-Ohio youth conferences.

Members received valuable experience in practical government and discussion. By completely revising the council's constitution and by-laws, the body gained new efficiency and influence.

"Quiet, please! Miss Randall is below!" ARLINGTONIAN editorial advisor, Mrs. Joyce Ricketts, often pleaded as the staff worked busily in the tiny journalism office located above Miss Vera Randall's English room. The office was furnished this year with several chairs and a typewriter, which were bought with the Buckeye Trading stamps JR, "the pass lass," was forever collecting from her "staffrophytes."

The staff began its year while the rest of the school was still on vacation, thus enabling students to receive an ARLINGTONIAN the second day of school. A special on the Student Council elections was distributed on March 27. Double issues were printed for both Christmas and graduation.

The ARLINGTONIAN members were the only people in school who majored in car. They were always leaving school to run to the printers, engravers and even to see Miss America! Too many fried hamburgers at the staff Christmas party caused a momentary blackout in the west wing.

Rash

Every member of the Fourth Estate suffers periodically from paper rash. Symptoms are glassy eyes, frenzied fingers, and general feyness. As April drew near, the Arlington staff was in quarantine—no visitors allowed.

A Communist spy ring was discovered and broken up during the Journalism I semester exam. Featured were America's Sweethearts Susan Bryant and Jack Maguire and their daughter Linda Grafmiller, wardrobe mistress Susan Ronson, foreign spy Bill Nuhfer, OSU alum Carole Kime, and FBI agents Peggy Lang and Betsy Talbot. Jan Crawford played the publicity manager, Tom Mansfield the head of the science department, Mike Storm the Chief of Police, and Karen Dahle, Vicki Hittle, Jenni Dingledine, and Mimi Williams members of the movie stars' entourage.

Co-editors this year were Susan Bryant and Jack Maguire, who studied journalism at Northwestern University last summer. Susan won third prize for a news feature at the High School Press Club of Central Ohio and Jack a second prize and a first place at the Journalism Association of Ohio Schools. News-feature editor Carole Kime won a second prize for her interview with Patrice Munsel, and Jan Crawford won a trophy for his advertising.

And at last the ARLINGTONIAN must confess that Linda Ann Willards, the paper's most often quoted student from Mt. Nebo Air Base, Arkansas, is purely fictitious.

Annual

To members of the NORWESTER staff, April 1 did not bring a fond anticipation of April Fool's Day. On the contrary, that was the dreaded date - the deadline for all of the NORWESTER material to go to press. It is no wonder that staff members and advisers alike went beserk. Climbing walls, delusions of grandeur, and broom flights were common. Annual fever had really broken out.

"Sara, where are the extra layout sheets?" "Haven't those copy sheets come yet?" "Miss Randall, will you please proof read this so I can type it?" "Have you made the appointment for that picture with Mr. Hildreth?" "The final deadline's when, a week from Monday?" These and other similar frantic cries could be heard on Wednesday afternoons in and around room 116.

Production began during the summer. The staff members chose a theme, took pictures, and wrote copy. When school opened a new theme was chosen. Hundreds of pictures were taken and retaken, while many more articles were written and rewritten. The staff buried in their work, soon discovered a mascot who laid the groundwork for many mirthful and mournful hours.

At the weekly after-school meetings, assorted cookies, cupcakes, and candy fortified the staff until 5:30 when the meetings usually adjourned. Divisionals were planned, the order of the book was decided on, and the cover design was chosen by the entire staff. From then on, the various editors plus any available recruits worked individually or in small groups. The business staff, led by Mr. Charles Will, met separately to complete their part in the publication of the 1963 NORWESTER.

Finally, after much hard work and much goading by "Jess Belle" Lowther and Miss Vera K. Randall, the April 1 deadline was met and the staff eagerly awaited the arrival of their finished product.

Band and

After a strenuous week of marching, rehearsing, swimming, and having fun at Camp Oty'Okwa in the Hocking Hills, the Upper Arlington marching band began a successful season of half-time entertainment. As soon as school opened, the bandsmen worked hard from 8:00 till 9:20 each morning under the able direction of Robert Ginther, newcomer Dave Snapp, and drum major Jerry Anthony. The results were easily seen and heard on Friday nights when all the turns were sharp, all the lines were straight, all the feet came up, and all the right notes were played fortissimo. Show themes such as "Toyland" with a wooden soldier and a satin doll, a tribute to Dad with a "Sound-Off" drill, and a gala homecoming show with the cha cha, the Charleston, and the twist were received enthusiastically by the crowds. The season reached its climax at the last game when Jerry Anthony led the band through a script "Bears" and the majorettes twirled their fire batons in a candle formation.

Many activities besides the Friday night shows kept the band busy during the fall. In order to raise money for projects such as buying new majorette uniforms, the persistent band members sold 7200 bars of the World's Finest Chocolate door-to-door and in the shopping center early in October. The band also marched in the Homecoming parades of both Arlington and Capital University. On the lighter side, the band members enjoyed bus trips to away games, spreads before home games, and parties after almost every game.

As soon as the football season reached its successful finish, the loud, brassy sounds of the marching band were replaced by the softer melodies of the woodwinds. After a short period of adjustment to this new type of music, the bandsmen began rehearsing for the annual choir and band Christmas program, which included such well-known favorites as The Nutcracker Suite and Leroy Anderson's Christmas Festival. Rehearsal for several school assemblies, a P. T. A. program, the annual spring "Musicana" and the Commencement program occupied the band after the Christmas holidays.

Orchestra is a relatively new addition to the musical activities at Upper Arlington. Under the baton of Bing Farrar, the small but hard-working group rehearsed twice a week and performed in the spring instrumental program.

The Bear-A-Tones, the school dance band, is perhaps the most pupular of the instrumental organizations. Several of the outstanding Arlington musicians enjoy this extracurricular activity. Besides playing for many dances at the U. A. schools, the Bear-A-Tones played special engagements such as a program at the Deshler Hilton Hotel for a National Convention and the spring "Musicana."

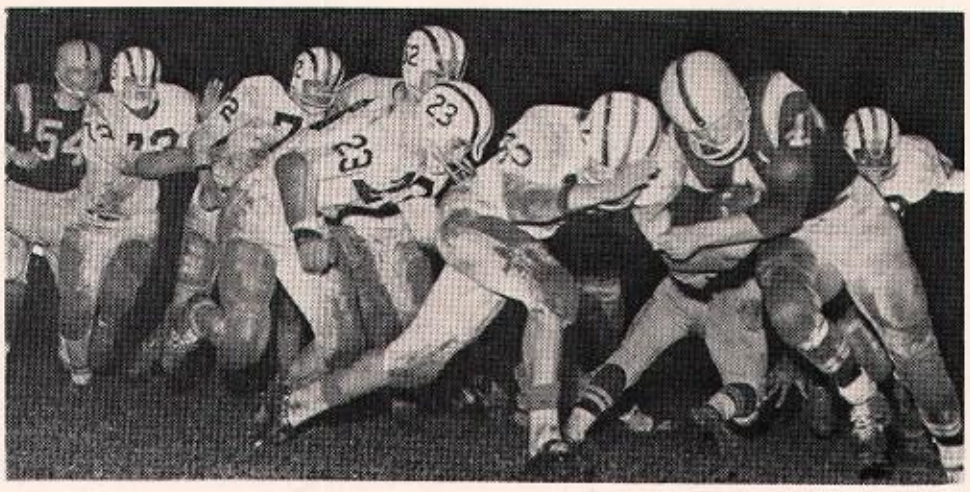
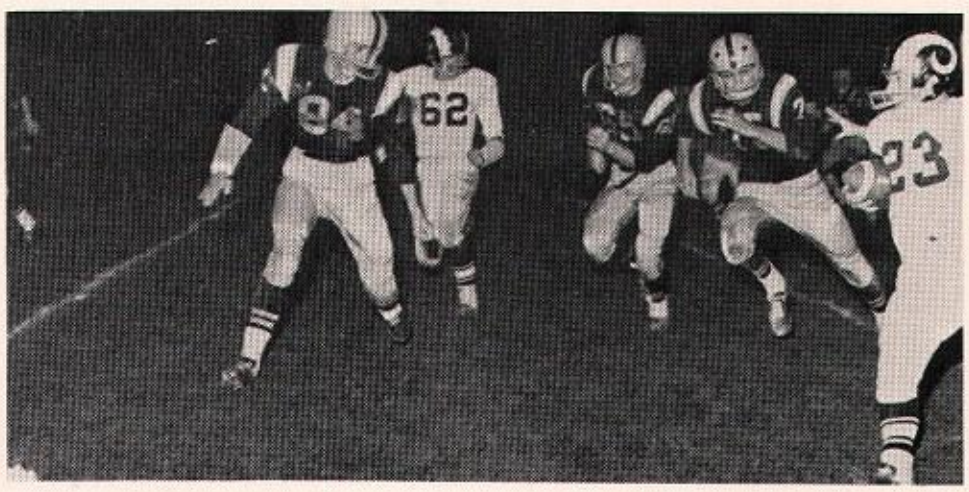
Lancaster's explosive power was too much for the young and inexperienced Golden Bears; however, Arlington finally began to move the ball late in the second half. Junior Scott Schuhart made several fine gains, and with thirty seconds left in the game, Co-captain Bill Robb scored from the six yard line for the Bear's only tally. Many Arlington players learned a great deal in this, their first varsity game.



The Golden Bears rebounded from their initial loss to soundly defeat South. Climaxed by Bill Robb's short sprint up the middle, Arlington opened the scoring in the second period with a fifty-six yard march. The Bears scored in the third period and again in the fourth period on runs by fullback Jim Baas. The defense, led by Paul Kuehn and Co-captain Keith Chrissinger, played a solid game, limiting the Bulldogs to a single touchdown.



Winning its first CBL game of the season, Arlington continued to show improvement. Paul Kuehn recovered a Bexley fumble on the opening kick-off to put the Golden Bears in high gear. Two touchdowns by Jim Baas and one by Bill Robb gave the Bears a commanding 20-0 lead at half time. In the third quarter, however, Bexley scored on two long runs to narrow the score to 20-16. In the final period Arlington came back on a 16-yard run by Bill Robb and an 18-yarder by sophomore halfback Dick Fishel. Guard Phil Macaluso helped the cause by pouncing on two Bexley fumbles.

Although the weather was unseasonably warm, winless Gradview certainly gave Arlington a chill. In the first quarter both teams marched deep into enemy territory, but neither could score. After recovering a second quarter Grandview punt, the Golden Bears began a 51-yard scoring drive, climaxed by Jim Baas's 5-yard plunge. Baas also supplied the winning margin with a two-point conversion. Grandview's only score came at the beginning of the third period. Arlington's defense stopped the try for a two-point conversion and prevented any other score to preserve a narrow victory.

Wet ground forced the postponement of both the game and the inauguration of Worthington's new stadium from Friday night to Saturday night, but the delay did not bother the Bears. Jim Baas and Bill Robb once again supplied the scoring punch. Don Brunton also contributed a six-pointer. Arlington's defense was the highlight of the game. The Golden Bear defenders led by Keith Chrissinger, Phil Macaluso, and Paul Duehn limited Worthington to only six first downs.

A large and enthusiastic Dad's Night crowd impatiently watched three quarters of even football before the Golden Bears finally took command. Arlington scored first on a six-yard run by Jim Baas, but Urbana came back late in the second period to make the score 8-8 at half time. In the final period Arlington put the game on ice with a twenty-yard touchdown pass from Bill Robb to end Chris Zara and a three-yard run by Scott Schuhart. The Arlington defense looked especially good in the second half with Paul Kuehn and Keith Chrissinger leading the charge.

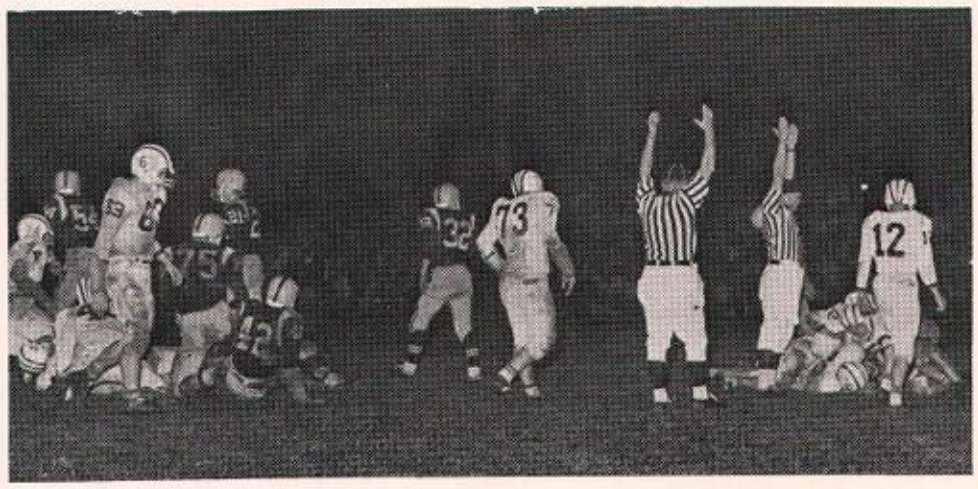
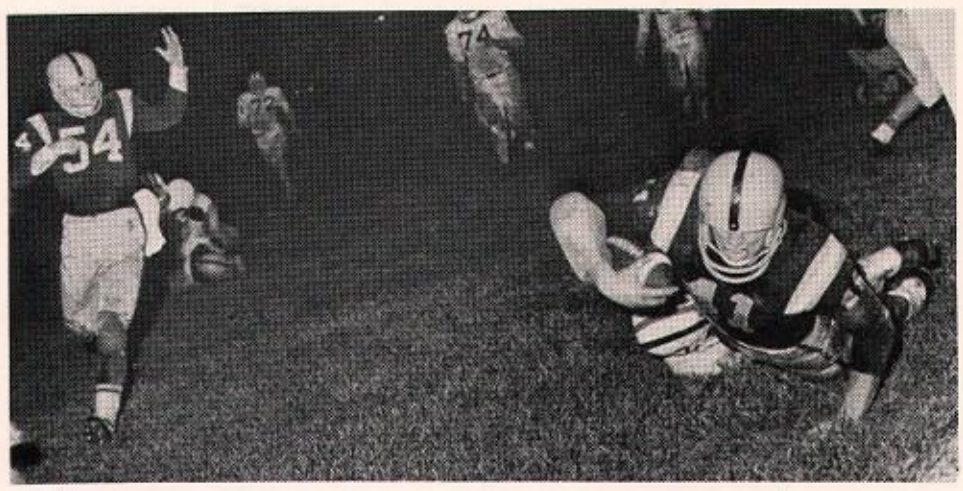
A standing-room-only crowd saw Arlington slip by Whitehall in a Homecoming game that was closer than the score indicates. Arlington took an 8-0 lead early in the second quarter, but the Rams seized an 8-12 lead at half time. The third quarter was scoreless. In the final period Bill Robb brought Golden Bear fans to their feet with two fine scoring runs. Chris Zara threw a key block to spring Robb on each run. Terry Howison played a strong defensive game and helped to hold Whitehall scoreless in the second half.



The weather was extremely cold at Mt. Vernon, but the Golden Bears were hot as they upped their CBL mark to 6-0. Bob Zerman opened the scoring barrage with a five-yard sprint in the first quarter. Second period touchdowns by Jim Baas and Chris Zara gave Arlington a 22-14 lead at the half. In the second half, a 45-yard run by Jim Baas was more than sufficient to insure a victory for the Golden Bears. Again the defensive team held its opponent scoreless in the second half. Keith Chrissinger and Terry Howison were standouts on defense.



The CBL championship was up for grabs in this winner-take-all game. Arlington scored first on a 4-yard run by Bob Zerman, but Delaware came right back with a 70-yarder to tie the score 6-6 after one period of play. The Golden Bear offense went to work in the second quarter and scored twenty points. Jim Baas, Bob Zerman, and Terry Osterstock accounted for the touchdowns. After its first period lapse, the defensive team came to life and held Delaware scoreless for the remainder of the game. Jim Baas iced the championship cake with a touchdown in the final period to give Arlington an 8-1 record over-all, 70 in the CBL, and a second consecutive CBL championship.

The 1962 Golden Bear reserve football team battled its way to its third undefeated, untied season in four years under the watchful eyes of coaches Jim Burke and Jim Samuels. The reserve team posted an outstanding 8-0 record, including a big 33-12 final game win over previously undefeated Brookhaven.

Backs Mike Stanley and Randy Walker paced the offensive team while line-backer Dick Christie sparked the defensive unit. The success of this fine reserve team is also reflected by the outstanding record compiled by the varsity. The weekly varsity-reserve scrimmages were an invaluable source of experience to the young Golden Bears. Several reserve players added to the important bench strength of this year's Golden Bear Champions.

At the traditional post-season dinner, Coach Burke stated that potentially this was the finest reserve team he had ever coached and that if the team continued to improve Arlington could expect to maintain its status as a CBL power.

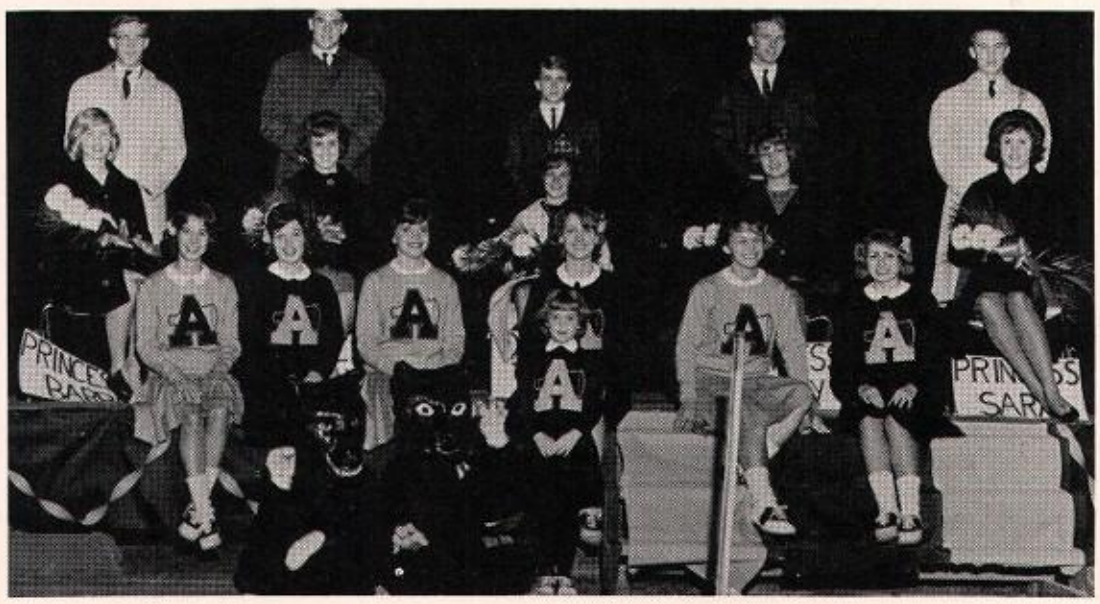
The Court and their escorts and the cheerleaders play an important part in the Homecoming festivities.



During the weeks before Homecoming, the entire student body was busy building the class floats. The junior class float was judged the best at the parade on October 18, which was climaxed by the announcement of Teri Adams as Homecoming Queen and the traditional bonfire. Queen Teri and her court reigned over the victory dance after the Bears defeated the Whitehall Rams by a score of 23-12.

Game Highlights

ARLINGTON 48 GAHANNA 43
John Ashby's five last-period baskets enabled the Golden Bears to maintain a slim lead over the visiting Lions. Ashby led the Bears with 17 points and Phil Williams added 12 in the game, which proved to be Gahana's only regular season defeat.

URBANA 55 ARLINGTON 36
The Golden Bears faced a tough assignment in their second game as the highly regarded Urbana Hillclimbers invaded the home court. An overflow crowd of twenty-four hundred roared its approval as U.A. grabbed a quick 6-2 lead. The margin was short lived, however, and the death blow was dealt in the fourth quarter when Arlington was outscored 23-12. Tom Mansfield led Arlington's scoring with 11 points and was followed by John Ashby and Ted Rose, each of whom scored 8 points.

GROVE CITY 55 ARLINGTON 53
A last second basket by Grove City's Dave Beets gave the Greyhounds a two-point victory over the Bears in overtime. Phil Williams played a fine game and scored 24 points. Ted Rose followed with 10 points and contributed a fine floor game.

ARLINGTON 54 GRANDVIEW 40
Arlington Golden Bears evened up their record at 2-2 as they dominated most of the play on the losers' court. John Ashby and Phil Williams shared scoring honors with 13 points each, while Tom Mansfield and Ted Rose followed closely with 11 and 10 points respectively.

ARLINGTON 68 WEST 56
Arlington ran away to an 18-10 first quarter lead and held off a determined band of Cowboys for the remaining three quarters. Phil Williams and John Ashby collaborated for 37 points, Phil getting 19 and John pocketing 18. Dan Spies added 8 and some fine rebounding.

ARLINGTON 59 WHITEHALL 38
Ted Rose's 17 points led the Golden Bears to a 21-point romp on the home court. Jim Gabel, Bob Peck, and Gary Browning each added a bucket as U.A. upped its C.B.L. record to 2-1. Phil Williams collected 13 points and played a fine defensive game.

ARLINGTON 64 MT. VERNON 59
In one of the finest games of the year, the Golden Bears showed fine team balance and a clutch defense at Mt. Vernon. Tom Mansfield led Arlington with 19 points, but was closely followed by John Ashby's 16 points and Ted Rose's 15 markers. U.A. hit 19 of its 38 shots for an even 50%, but actually won the game at the charity stripe, where the Bears collected 26 big points.

ARLINGTON 56 DELAWARE 40
Phil Williams led the Bears to a home court victory by collecting 19 points. Tom Mansfield added 11 in a game which saw U.A. grab a 15-4 first quarter lead and gradually increase its margin to the final total.

ARLINGTON 48 BEXLEY 46
Bexley's tenacious defense did a fine job on U.A.'s front line, holding it to a total of 16 points, but the Blue Lions couldn't contain Ted Rose. Playing a tremendous game, Ted connected for 21 points and contributed another fine floor game. The Bears were down 10-7 at the end of the first quarter but finally righted themselves and grabbed a 48-43 lead in the final minutes. This game left the Golden Bears tied with Urbana and Worthington for first place, all three teams possessing 5-1 records.

SPRINGFIELD NORTH 53
ARLINGTON 52
In a non-league game, the Bears put on a late rush which just barely missed. John Ashby led the home team with 13 points and Tom Mansfield followed with 11 points. Down by as much as seven points, the Golden Bears staged an impressive comeback.

WORTHINGTON 58
ARLINGTON 51
Ted Rose's basket, with 12 seconds left, tied the score at 51-51 and sent this battle of co-leaders into an overtime. Arlington couldn't find the range in the extra session, however, and was outscored 7-0. Eighteen points by Rose and 12 by Phil Williams led the Bears in scoring.

URBANA 55 ARLINGTON 39
The Golden Bears traveled to Urbana and connected on 42% of their shots. Unfortunately they shot only 33 times, producing 14 field goals. After enjoying a 7-6 first quarter lead, U.A.'s cagers soon found themselves trailing 25-15 at the half. John Ashby led Arlington with 16 points and did a tremendous defensive job on Urbana's All-Ohio Ed Couts. Couts was held to only four field goals and a total of 10 points, but the Bears dropped their third straight.

ARLINGTON 58 GRANDVIEW 43
The Bears repeated their first round win over the Bobcats mostly on the strength of Phil Williams' 15 points and some fine rebounding by the front line. Following closely behind Phil were John Ashby and Tom Mansfield, who each had 11. Steve Mauger made his first start and contributed 7 points to the cause.

ARLINGTON 75 WHITEHALL 44
John Ashby was the whole story in this game. The 6-5 senior dunked in 30 points and scraped the boards for 21 rebounds. Ted Rose contributed 16 points as he and Ashby outscored the entire Whitehall team by two points. Terry Howison collected 5 points and Mike Berdleman added a free throw as the Bears pushed their season record to 9-5.

ARLINGTON 75 MT. VERNON 53
Thanks to a 22-point performance by John Ashby, the Golden Bears on the home court killed Mt. Vernon's title aspirations. Hitting 56% of their shots, the Bears outscored the Yellow Jackets 27-10 in the third quarter. Ted Rose added 17 points while Dan Spies collected 13. Ashby proved to be a tiger on rebounds, too, as he grabbed 20 and led the Bears to their second win of the season over the Jackets.

ARLINGTON 58 DELAWARE 42
Balanced scoring by the visiting Bears proved to be the winning secret. Ted Rose led his teammates with 16 points, but was closely followed by Phil Williams with 12 points, Tom Mansfield with 10, and John Ashby with 10. The victory boosted the Golden Bears' C.B.L. record to 9-3.

ARLINGTON 74 BEXLEY 45
After compiling an early 20-1 lead, U.A. coasted to its fifth straight victory. Phil Williams scored 20 points, and John Ashby collected 18 as the Golden Bears romped to a repeat victory over the Blue Lions. Bill Robb added 4 points and some fiine floor play in a game which saw the Bears leading 41-16 at halftime.

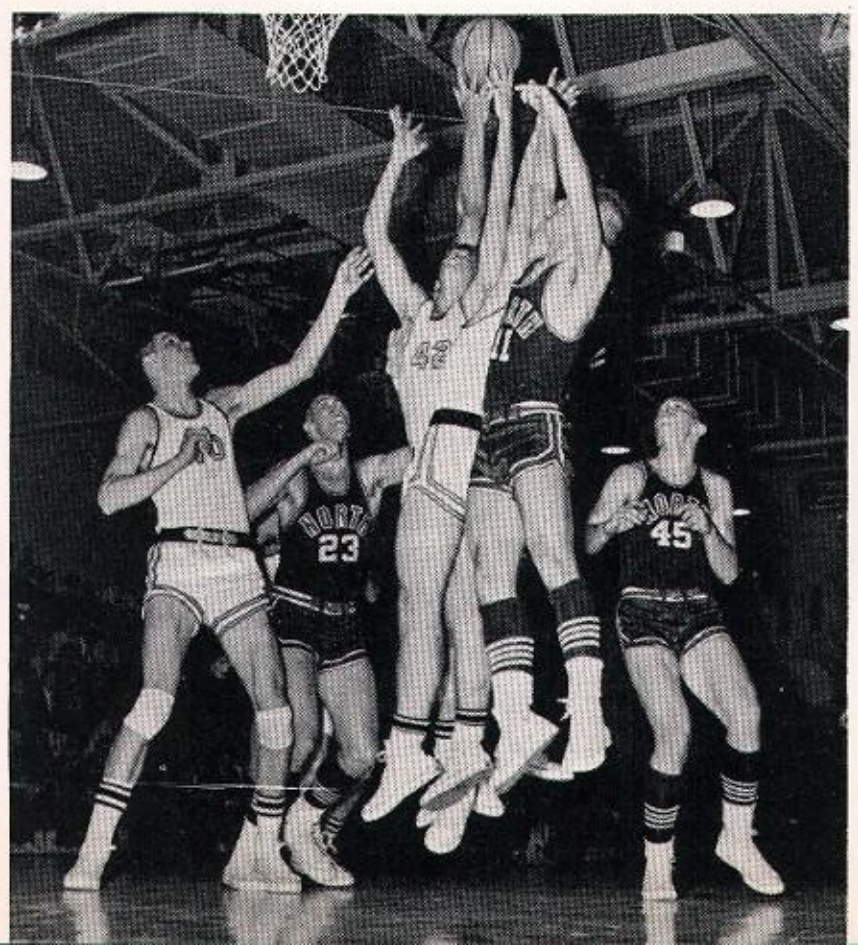
WORTHINGTON 50
A packed gym watched Arlington hit 46% from the field in avenging a first-round defeat to the Cardinals. Leading 26-12, the Bears were forced to stifle a last minute comeback by the determined visitors. Dan Spies and John Ashby led U.A. with 15 points each and were followed by Phil Williams' 12 points. The Golden Bears completed the regular season with a fine 13-5 record and finished second behind Urbana in the Central Buckeye League.

ARLINGTON 78 ELGIN 51
Arlington ventured into the Central District Tournament eighth in position. The Golden Bears had too much height for Elgin and quickly disposed of the Comets. John Ashby led U.A. in scoring by collecting 28 points and was followed by Ted Rose's 14 points and Dan Spnes' 12 points. Bill Robb had a perfect night from the field as he connected on all three of his shots and contributed 6 points.



ARLINGTON 59 EASTMOOR 53
The Golden Bears' second engagement in the tournament was with the Eastmoor Warriors. After leading by as much as 14 points, the Bears' lead stood at 53-52 with only two minutes left. Clutch free throws by John Ashby, Bill Robb, Dan Spies, and Ted Rose proved to be the winning margin. Dan Spies took scoring honors with 14 points but was closely followed by Ted Rose's 13 points.

WORTHINGTON 58
This was one of those ball games that went right down to the final buzzer. After leading by as much as ten points, the Golden Bears discovered that their lead had shrunk to only 59-57 with two seconds left and a jump ball under the Cardinal basket. Worthington controlled the tip and made a basket as time ran out. The two points were nullified, however, because of a foul before the shot. The first free throw swished through the nets, and the Coliseum became deathly quiet for the second attempt. The shot rolled around the rim, finally dropped off, and Arlington had its ninth straight victory. Ted Rose led the victorious Bears with 21 points and was followed by Steve Mauger's 9 points.

EAST 70 ARLINGTON 64
Phil Williams, playing the finest game of his career, nearly led the Golden Bears to an upset victory over the top-seeded East Tigers. Behind 18-10 in the second quarter, the Bears clawed their way to four straight baskets and an 18-18 tie. Three times the Bears were down by eight points or more, and twice they tied the Tigers, who were fourth ranked in the state. Only in the closing minutes, when East took a ten-point lead, did a winning comeback seem unlikely. Even at that stage of the game, U.A. led by Ted Rose, Dan Spies, and Bill Robb, kept fighting until the final buzzer. Williams 23 points led all scorers, as the Golden Bears shot a sizzling 57% in their final game. East stopped Arlington's victory string at nine, and the Bears finished the season with a fine 16-6 record.

The Upper Arlington reserve basketball team completed the season with a record of 9-9 over all and 7-7 in Central Buckeye League warfare. The reserves provided the fans with many thrills during the season including a 24-23 squeaker in their first meeting with Worthington. A 38-19 victory over Mt. Vernon will be remembered by the players, as they avenged an earlier five-point defeat.

Bill Craft led the reserves in scoring with 107 points, and he joined with Bill Radcliffe in ruling the backboards for the reserves. Ross Bartschy proved to be the best foul shooter on the club, and Randy Walker, Rob Rudolph, and Mike Stanley handled the guard positions very capably.

Once again Coach Richard Larkin guided the Upper Arlington thinclads through a fine season. Led by seniors Bob Merritt and Lloyd Filer, juniors Bob Peck, Ed Norris, Mark Rodgers, and Tom Saunders, and sophomores Jim Magnuson and Fred Mees, the U.A. two-milers compiled an outstanding 8-3 record. The team's record included dual meet victories over Columbus East, Logan, Columbus North, Springfield South, and Linden McKinley, as well as two tri-meet firsts against Columbus West-Grandview and Columbus South-Hilliards. The Arlington harriers also made a good showing in the Central District Meet, placing fourth.

Captain Bob Merritt had the year's best time, a 10:37 clocking at the Worthington Relays on October 13, while Bob Peck's 10:56 ran a close second.

At the Fall Sports Banquet Bob Merritt received the Coach's Award for being first the greatest number of times (10 firsts in 15 meets). Bob Peck was chosen the team's most valuable runner and Fred Mees the team's most improved runner. Ed Norris and Bob Peck were announced as the 1963 Cross Country co-captains elect to climax a great banquet and a fine season.

Swimming

The tankers, led by senior co-captains Bob Chambers and Mark Anderson, fashioned a fine 10-5 dual meet record for the 1962-63 season. Swimming against ranking teams throughout the state, the Bears were in top-notch condition in capturing the Central Ohio Swim League, City Relays, and Central District crowns for the eighth consecutive year.

All-American Tom Lakin, state freestyle champion, paced the record-breaking splashers by establishing new marks in the 50, 100 and 400 yard freestyle events. His times were 22.7, 49.5, and 4:22.7 respectively. Tom Call posted new school records in the 200-yard freestyle, 1:55.6, and 200-yard individual medley, 2:21.9. Senior co-captain Mark Anderson lowered the 100-yard backstroke time almost three seconds to 59.0. The 200-yard freestyle relay team (John Lathrop, Tom Call, Bob Chambers, Tom Lakin) set a new record of 1:33.0 in finishing second in the state meet.

The team concluded the year by placing fifth in the state meet. With a superior group of sophomores and many outstanding returning lettermen, the mermen can look forward to another spectacular year.

Wrestling

The wrestling season started well for the Golden Bears, led by Captain Jim Baas and acting Captain Tom Collins, as they soundly defeated rival Hilliards twenty-eight to eighteen. They placed third out of eight teams in the Franklin Heights Holiday Tournament. The team proceeded to finish the season with a five-win, six-loss record in dual meets. The highlight of the season came in the district tournament where Arlington beat two teams that had previously beaten them, and the Golden Bears took fifth place out of thirty-four teams in this area.

Tom Saunders and Pete Morris qualified for the state meet by being first and second respectively in the district tournament.

The season closed with the banquet at the Grandview Inn on March 11. It was announced that next year's co-captains would be Tom Saunders and Tom Bates. Tom Saunders, who finished the season with a record of 22-4-1, was given the trophy for the team's leading scorer. The Outstanding Team Member Award went to Captain Jim Baas and Dave Sherman, who both received severe knee injuries during the season.

Baseball

Guided by Coach Pete Corey and led by Captain Ted Rose, the U.A. baseball team promises to be a strong contender for the C. B. L. crown. Though there are only two returning lettermen, Ted Rose and Phil Williams, seniors John Ashby, Mike Heyne, and Benny Nicola along with the lettermen form a substantial senior core. If solid support is received from the junior members of the team, this ball club will be a good one.

Track

The track team, paced by senior Captain Paul Kuehn, face this year's challenging schedule with eight returning lettermen. Bolstered by many sophomore varsity prospects, the thin clads should capture their share of district and league honors. The Golden Bears are coached by Mr. Richard Larkin.

Golf

The perenially strong golf team once again faces a very difficult schedule. With four returning lettermen, led by co-captains Chuck Durrant and Ron Byers and supported by fine sophomore potential, the golfers are confident of improving last year's 11-7-1 and fifth place district finish.

Tennis

Upper Arlington's tennis team will again prove to be a strong contender on Ohio courts this spring. Coach Dave Shelby reported that over fifty boys tried out for positions on the squad. Co-captains Dan Spies and Tom Mansfield, the defending state champion, will lead the other returning lettermen, Don Stone, Bob Zerbst and Randy Lewis to another successful season.

The job of sports head is certainly not an easy one. This is why each girl nominated for the office must be hard-working, capable, and efficient. She keeps a record of every girl who participates and the number of points each accumulates. The sports head must also set up every tournament and secure officials for each game.

The G.A.A. sports year began in the fall with Ginny McIntire and Mrs. Margaret Samuels getting the hockey season under way. About two weeks after the hockey varsity and reserve teams had been chosen, the volleyball tournament, led by Betsy Talbot, began. Any member of G.A.A. who did not make the hockey teams was eligible to participate in volleyball. Also in the fall the tennis team made pre-season selections with Frankie Liebermann in charge. The team was chosen at this time to eliminate time-consuming tryouts in the spring.

The basketball season was soon to follow. With Barb Shoop, Mrs. Samuels, and Mrs. Elizabeth Davis's leadership three teams were chosen, one from each grade, to play other schools. Beginning in January of 1963, intramural teams participated in tournaments. Shortly after basketball was initiated, an experimental program of recreation was tried. A few enthusiastic females played ping pong and checkers. This program was headed by sophomore Karen Davis.

Eager female bowlers frequented Fiesta Bowling Lanes on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons beginning in February. Susan Harding had the task of keeping track of who bowled on which alley, the proper day for each team to bowl, and of course, the money.

With spring coming around the corner, several sports got under way. These events included golf, headed by Kathy Kern; softball, headed by Nancy Schnittke; and tennis headed by Frankie Liebermann.

The G.A.A. events were concluded in May with the annual banquet where awards and the announcement of the new officers were the highlights.

Christine Leininger

The student maintaining the highest average throughout high school in the class of '63 was Christine Leininger, 3.97222. Following her closely was Bruce Kuhnert, 3.97059.

Next in order of their point averages were these students: Jeff Schofield, Barb Rauh, Tom Fox, Marcia Graves, Karen Cosens, Mike Heyne, Phil Curtis, Laird Blackwell, Linda Riebel, and Tom Collins.

After the end of four six weeks' periods, four students in the class of '64 held 4.0 semester averages and had received all A's for the fourth six weeks. These junior honor students were Karl Case, Karen Coe, Nancy Deckard, and Susan Stephens.

National Honor Society

Every spring the National Honor Society has a formal induction ceremony for its new members. The upper twenty per cent of the senior class and the upper ten per cent of the junior class are eligible for membership. However, only ten per cent of eligible seniors and five per cent of eligible juniors are actually selected for membership. The selection is based on scholarship, character, leadership, and service. Performing an invaluable service to the school, the National Honor Society operates the book store under the direction of Mr. Ellis Lutz, the society's adviser.

Quill and Scroll is an international society to honor student journalists. On April 2 there was an impressive assembly ceremony to initiate new members from the Arlingtonian and Norwester staffs. Because of the nature of the society, the meetings are limited but important. Qualifications for a prospective candidate include a specified amount of superior work in the field of journalism; a place in the upper third of the class from ninth grade or for current year; a junior or senior; and recommendation by the adviser. Miss G. Ellen Mann serves as the adviser of Quill and Scroll.

National Merit High Scorers

NATIONAL MERIT HIGH SCORERS: Ron Cook, Phil Curtis, Christine Leininger, Susan Ronson, Denis Trover.

Susan Bryant, Christine Leininger, Ron Cook, Phil Curtis, and Dennis Trover qualified both as National Merit Semifinalists and as Finalists. They were among 11,000 Semifinalists, or two-thirds of one per cent of all secondary school seniors in the nation. Semifinalists were chosen on the basis of the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test scores of the junior year. Those Semifinalists who also received high scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test were named Finalists. In the spring approximately ten percent of the Finalists received National Merit Scholarship awards.

Ranking In The State

The Senior Scholarship Test was given to the top forty per cent of the graduating class. The results of the test show the class of 1963 to have honors on the State, district, and county levels. The test was an indication of the achievement made in five areas: history, science, English, reading and comprehension.

Christine Leininger led the group by ranking sixth in the district and receiving honorable mention in the State and county. Both Sara Lemley and Craig Allen ranked twenty-fourth in the district and received honorable mention in the State and county. The following seniors received honorable mention in the district, county, and the State: Tom Collins, Ron Cook, Phil Curtis, David Erickson, Lewis Gordon, Jack McGuire, Bill Robb, Jeff Schofield, Denis Trover, Eric Bolz, Robert Brown, Laird Blackwell, and Barb Fitzsimmons.

Spanish National Honor Society

Spanish National Honor Society is to give recognition to those students excelling in Spanish who hope to continue it for four years. To become a member, the students must maintain an A or B average in Spanish and fairly good grades in other subjects. Initiations are held once a year for new members of "Gabriela Minstral," the Upper Arlington Chapter. The Spanish National Honor Society is under the sponsorship of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portugese and is Nationwide. There are 120 chapters all over the United States and 22 in the State of Ohio. Mrs. Gloria Ecker is the adviser.

Becky Ylaya, Bob Dyer, Chrissy Wollam, Kathy Kelly.

AFS

The American Field Service is a national organization which strives to promote world friendship through a program of international scholarships. These scholarships are offered to qualified foreign students who wish to live with an American family and study at an American high school. Of secondary importance is the Americans Abroad program whereby a high school junior can spend a summer, semester, or school year as part of a family abroad.

Although Arlington High School has participated in the American Field Service program for four years, it was only this year that a school club was formed to publicize the activities of this worthy organization. Mr. Charles Will served as faculty adviser.

Boys' and Girls' State

Jeff Schofield, Anne Lynn, Bill Robb, Susan Bryant, Dick Main, Sara Lowther.

Each summer the American Legion post sponsors six representatives to Buckeye Girls' and Boys' State. The delegates chosen to represent Upper Arlington from the class of 1963 were Susan Bryant, Sara Lowther, Anne Lynn, Dick Main, Bill Robb, and Jeff Schofield.

Over two thousand young people participated in setting up governments patterned after the local and state government of Ohio. Buckeye Girls' State was held at Capital University whereas Buckeye Boys' State was organized on the campus of Ohio University.

The delegates were given the opportunity to elect their officials and then to work together to create a successful government. By actual participation they were able to learn and understand many state governmental procedures.

You can see the Volkswagen people have had lots of practice. From the beginning, they've put all their time and effort into the one basic model.

They learned to make every part fit every other part so well, the VW is practically air-tight. The engine is so carefully machined and assembled, you can drive a new VW at top speed all day.

Volkswagen doesn't change the car to make it look different, only to make it work better. When a change is made, Volkswagen goes out of the way to make the new part fit older Volkswagens, too. Result: We can repair and service any year Volkswagen, even the earliest.

(Why not? They use mostly interchangeable parts!)

In 1962, more American than ever (about 225,000) bought themselves new Volkswagens. Why?

One reason: Unlike most conventional cars, the VW doesn't go out of style every year or two. (To discover other reasons, we suggest you come in and take the '63 Volkswagen for a drive.)

Dear Carol,
I feel privileged to be the first to sign your book. It gives me my thrill for the day. It's been fun & Eng. & history, even though we've had our problems. Have all my fun for me next year while I'm suffering it out at Purdue. Write me if you can find the time. Love ya, Donna Kay

Carol,
Well, we're out of school --- for two weeks -- I hope Mr. Grant's course will be fun & passable! Best of luck in everything...
Have a fine summer,
Mary Jane
P.S. I hope I don't see you in P.O.D next year.
